17 THIS MATTER, coming on for hearing this 13th day of September, 2010 upon the 18 defendant's Petition for Deferred Prosecution; the defendant appearing in person and by his
19 attorney, John Carpenter, Assistant Federal Public Defender; the United States of America
20 being represented by Captain Paul Robson, Special Assistant United States Attorney; the 21 Court, having examined and incorporated into the record Petitioner's Petition and Statement
22 in support of deferred prosecution, the evaluation and treatment report prepared by All For 23 You Counseling, and the files and records herein, being fully advised in the premises, does
24 now make and enter the following:

25 ///
26 ///

1 I. FINDINGS OF FACT

2 A. On or about the 14th day of December, 2009, Petitioner was charged with the 3 offense/offenses charged in the Information. This offense occurred as a direct result of 4 alcoholism/chemical dependency problems;

5 B. Petitioner suffers from an alcohol/drug problem and is in need of treatment;

6 C. The probability of similar misconduct in the future is great if the problem is not
7 treated;

8 D. Petitioner is amenable to treatment;

9 E. An effective rehabilitative treatment plan is available to Petitioner through All
10 For You Counseling, an approved treatment facility as designated by the laws of the State of 11 Washington, and Petitioner agrees to be liable for all costs of this treatment program;

12 F. That Petitioner agrees to comply with the terms and conditions of the program
13 offered by the treatment facility as set forth in the diagnostic evaluation from All For You
14 Counseling, attached to Statement of Petitioner filed herewith, and that Petitioner agrees to be
15 liable for all costs of this treatment program;

16 G. That Petitioner has knowingly and voluntarily stipulated to the admissibility and
17 sufficiency of the facts as contained in the written police report attached to Statement of 18 Petitioner filed herewith.

19 H. That Petitioner has acknowledged the admissibility of the stipulated facts in any
20 criminal hearing or trial on the underlying offense or offenses held subsequent to revocation
21 of this Order Granting Deferred Prosecution and that these reports will be used to support a
22 finding of guilt;

23 From the foregoing FINDINGS OF FACT, the Court draws the following:

II. CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

A. That the above-entitled Court has jurisdiction over the subject matter and Petitioner Miller, in this case;

B. That Petitioner's Petition for Deferred Prosecution meets the requirements of RCW 10.05 et seq.;

C. That the diagnostic evaluation and commitment to treatment meets the requirements of RCW 10.05.150;

D. That Petitioner is eligible for deferred prosecution.

III. ORDER

Having made and entered the foregoing FINDINGS OF FACT and CONCLUSIONS OF LAW, it is hereby

ORDERED that the defendant is accepted for deferred prosecution. The prosecution of the above-entitled matter is hereby deferred for five (5) years pursuant to RCW 10.05 et seq., upon the following terms and conditions:

A. Petitioner shall be on probation for the deferral period and follow the rules and regulations of probation;

B. Petitioner shall enroll in and successfully complete the two-year treatment program recommended by All For You Counseling according to the terms and conditions of that plan as outlined in the diagnostic evaluation, a true copy of which is attached to the Petition and incorporated herein by reference. Petitioner shall not change treatment agencies without prior Probation approval;

C. The treatment facility, All For You Counseling, shall file with the United States Probation Office status reports of Petitioner's compliance with treatment, monthly during the first year of the deferred prosecution period and every three (3) months during the second year.

The Court may increase the frequency of these reports at its discretion;

1 D. Petitioner shall notify U.S. Probation within 72 hours of any residence change.

2 E. Petitioner shall abstain during the deferred prosecution period from any and all
3 consumption of alcoholic beverages and/or non-prescribed mind-altering drugs;

4 F. Petitioner shall not operate a motor vehicle on the public highways without a
5 valid operator's license and proof of liability insurance sufficient to comply with the state laws
6 on financial responsibility;

7 G. Petitioner shall be law abiding and shall not commit any alcohol/drug related
8 offenses or other criminal offenses during the period of deferral,

9 H. Petitioner shall notify U.S. Probation within 72 hours of being arrested,
10 questioned, or cited by Law Enforcement;

11 I. In the event that Petitioner fails or neglects to carry out and fulfill any term or
12 condition of his treatment plan or violates any provision of this Order or any rule or regulation
13 of his probation officer, upon receiving notice, the Court shall hold a hearing to determine why
14 Petitioner should not be removed from deferred prosecution and prosecuted for the 15 offense/offenses charged;

16 J. In the event the Court finds cause to revoke this deferred prosecution, the 17 stipulated police reports shall be admitted into evidence, and Petitioner shall have her guilt or
18 innocence determined by the Court;

19 K. That the statement of Petitioner for Deferred Prosecution shall remain sealed,
20 and all subsequent reports or documents relating to her treatment information shall be sealed,
21 to maintain confidentiality of Petitioner's treatment information;

22 L. That the Department of Licensing be notified of this Order accepting the 23 Petitioner for deferred prosecution;

24 M. Upon proof of Petitioner's successful completion of five years deferral period
25 in this Order, the Court shall dismiss the charges pending against Petitioner.
